Heard M/s.Hema Srinivasan, learned counsel for the applicant / plaintiff and Mr.P.H.Aravind Pandian, learned senior counsel appearing for Mr.A.Chidambaram, learned counsel for the first defendant.

2. Today, the first defendant is present before this court. It appears that the documents, as directed by this Court on 12.09.2023, have not been e-filed. However, the learned senior counsel appearing for the first defendant would plead that the non-filing of the documents was only on account of the counsel lack of knowledge of the nuances of e-filing. However, the document had now been e-filed with the assistance of the staff of the I.T Section and that too on the compulsion of the Court. The learned counsel for the first defendant is also directed to submit the entire hard copy into the registry by 3:00 p.m. The receiving staff of the Registry is directed to note down the time on which the hard copy is received.
