AND

N. SENTHILKUMAR, J.

Heard Mr.Karthik Rajan, learned counsel for the petitioner, Ms.S.Suneetha, learned counsel for respondent 1, Mr.E.Veda Bagath Singh, learned Special Government Pleader for respondents 2 to 4 and Mr.I.Abrar Md. Abdullah, learned Standing Counsel for respondent 5.

The petitioner has already earned promotion to the post of Deputy Commissioner of Labour, whereas, in the order impugned in the proposed writ appeal, since seniority has been questioned, it was decided in the said batch of cases by the order dated 13.03.2026. By virtue of that, according to the learned counsel for the petitioner, who is going to be the proposed appellant, is getting affected and he has not been a party to any of the writ proceedings, which were disposed through the order impugned. Accordingly, to enable the present petitioner to challenge the order which is impugned in the main writ appeal, he seeks leave of this Court.

In view of the same, this leave petition is ordered.
