

L.P.A.No.12 of 2023
and C.M.P.No.28628 of 2023

R.MAHADEVAN, J.

AND

MOHAMMED SHAFFIQ, J.

(Order of the court was made by R.MAHADEVAN, J.)

Heard Mr.J.Raveendran, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Mr.D.Veerasekharan, learned Standing Counsel for the appellants.

2. Under similar circumstances connected to the issue involved herein, by a common order dated 15.11.2021 in Contempt Petition Nos.1423 of 2017 & 742 of 2021, this court has observed as follows:

“17. This Court is of the considered opinion that the Housing Board has not committed any contempt of Court wilfully and wantonly. Contrarily, they have followed the fixation as they have done in respect of the other allottees during the year 2000 and thus the petitioners could not able to prove that the respondents have committed contempt of Court wilfully and wantonly.”

3. In view of the above, there shall be an order of interim stay for a period of four weeks.

4. Post the matter after four weeks. Issue notice to the respondent through court as well as privately by then.
