N.SENTHILKUMAR, J.

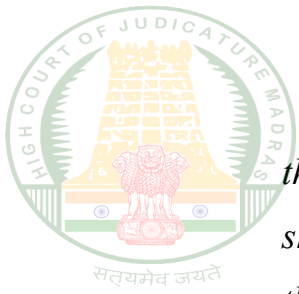

Today, this matter is listed under the caption “for being mentioned” at the instance of the petitioner.

2. None appeared for the respondents.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner pointed out that in paragraph no.15 of the order dated 26.11.2025 passed in A.No.1861 of 2025, the rank of the respondent has been wrongly typed as first respondent, whereas, that order is only applicable to the second respondent and therefore, the rank of the respondent may be changed from first respondent to second respondent. He further submits that with regard to execution of warrant, the same be executed through the Superintendent of Police, Kadag District, Karnataka. It is his further submission that the second respondent be directed to furnish a list of property, which stands in his name, for attachment.

4. In view of the above, the paragraph no.15 of the order dated 26.11.2025 in A.No.1861 of 2025 shall be corrected as follows:

“15. In view of the dictum laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the decisions cited supra and in the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is allowed in terms of Order XXXIX Rule 2A of CPC. Accordingly, the property in the name of the second respondent, namely Roopa Industries, shall be attached to the civil suit in C.S. No.427 of 2015 and the second respondent shall be detained in the civil prison for a period of three months. The Registry is directed to issue necessary warrant for attachment of property of the second respondent and for arresting the second respondent. With regard to the execution of warrant, the same shall be executed through the Superintendent of Police, Kadag District, Karnataka. For attachment of property, the second respondent shall furnish a list of property, which stands in his name. No costs.”

The Registry shall carry out the necessary correction and issue fresh order copy forthwith.
