The appeal has been filed by the appellant/wife challenging the order of divorce granted by the V Additional Family Court at Chennai in OP.No.5216 of 2022 by order dated 23.04.2024.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant/petitioner would state that the respondent/husband had filed the above O.P. seeking a decree of divorce and the same was granted by the Trial Court. Learned counsel would further state that the respondent is making efforts for second marriage and if it is allowed, the appellant will be put to irreparable loss and hardship. Therefore, the learned counsel would pray that the order passed by the Family Court has to be stayed.

3. Considering the above submissions made by the learned counsel for the appellant/petitioner and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be an order of interim stay of all further proceeding of the order dated 23.04.2022 passed by the V Additional Family Court at Chennai in O.P.No.5216 of 2022.
