

S.A. No. 538 of 2014

DR. A.D. MARIA CLETE, J

WEB COPY

Learned counsel for the appellant is present and submits that though he has filed a petition in C.M.P.No.29537 of 2025 for substituted service in respect of R2 to R6, R4 to R6 have been served and their names have been printed. Learned counsel for the first respondent is present and submits that R1 is the mother of R2 and he undertakes to file vakalat for R2. It is seen that the notice sent to R3 has been returned as no such person and the learned counsel for the appellant seeks one more opportunity to serve notice on the third respondent and further seeks permission to withdraw the petition filed for substituted service.

2.Fresh notice to R3 through court and post. Private notice is also permitted. Since the issue is regarding partition, the learned counsels on either sides are directed to explore the possibility of settlement between the parties. All the parties are directed to appear before this Court in the next hearing date and both the learned counsels undertakes to ensure the appearance of the parties.

3.List on 21.01.2026 under the caption 'For referral to Mediation' for appearance of the parties.
