PRAYER

Civil Revision Petition filed under Art. 227 of Constitution of India, praying to allow the C.R.P. and to set aside the order dated 27.03.2025 made in I.A.No.7 of 2024 in O.P.No.2534/2019 on the file of the Honourable IV Additional Family Court, Chennai.

For Petitioner(s): Mr.S.Viji

For Respondent(s): Mr.J.Saravanavel

ORDER

Challenging the impugned order passed in I.A.No.7 of 2024 in O.P.No.2534 of 2019 by the learned IV Additional Family Court, Chennai, the Revision Petitioner had preferred this Civil Revision Petition.

2. The trial court by an order dated 24.01.2024 passed in I.A.No.02 of 2020 in O.P.No.2534 of 2019 had passed the following order :-

“permitting the petitioner to visit the minor child J.Sudharshanaa and J.Vishnuvaradhan on the third Saturday of every month between 03.00 p.m. – 05.00 p.m. in the child care centre, Family Court, Chennai on the 3rd Saturday of every month. If the parties are finding any difficulties in complying with the above order, they are liberty to approach this court for modification of the same.”

By relying the aforesaid order, the learned counsel for revision petitioner would submit that as a father, he wanted to see his children, who are aged about 15 years and 7 years atleast one day in a week, but the trial court has restricted only for 3rd Saturday of every month with limited period. He would submit that he is also paying maintenance and he wanted to spend a quality time with his children. So, the period of time fixed between 03.00 p.m. to 05.00 p.m. on the third Saturday of every month is under challenge.

3. The respondent appeared in person and stated that now he used to send abusive messages and causing annoyance to the children. So, the children are not interested to go with him. She had submitted that he is also consuming alcohol and his behaviour is irresistible. Therefore, she raised objections.

4. Considering both side submissions and on perusal of records, the fact reveals that revision petitioner, who is the father of children, wanted to see the children. He has completed M.Tech. and he is employed in a private company and earning reasonable salary. As on date, he is paying a sum of Rs.40,000/- as maintenance and still there is arrears of maintenance. More than 8 years, they have got separated and both children are under the custody of respondent wife.

Now, daughter is going to 11th Std. and son is going to 4th Std. Now, the revision petitioner wanted interim custody of children. Considering that, the order passed by the trial judge is modified. Accordingly, the revision petitioner is directed to take the children in a car to the Express Avenue Mall, Chennai at 11.00 a.m. on every Sunday and to hand over the children back to the respondent at 06.00 p.m. on the same day. During that period, both parties are directed not to cause any annoyance. With the said direction, this Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. No costs. The revision petitioner is directed to pay arrears of maintenance to the respondent. No costs. Consequently, connected civil miscellaneous petition is closed.
