The petitioner appearing in person would submit that investigation on his complaint has not been done properly. Though criminal case has been registered in Crime No.127 of 2019, persons named by the victim have not been examined by the Police. The petitioner in person would submit that even no statement has been obtained from him so far.

2. Per contra the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that investigation is completed and charge sheet filed in respect of the accused persons.

3. The contention of the petitioner would priama facie show that investigation was not conducted properly by examining all accused persons named by the victim. The Mr.P.Saravanan, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Vedaranyam, appearing before this Court could not able to produce any documents to establish that petitioner has been examined during the course of investigation.
