The learned Advocate Commissioner has filed a report stating that the suit A and B schedule properties are not fit for division and they have to be brought for sale.

2.The parties to the suit are also agreeable to the suggestion given by the Commissioner.

3.Let the Commissioner proceed in accordance with the order dated 01.12.2025.

4.Learned counsel for the plaintiffs submitted that the share of the expenses in respect of Commissioner's fee and the valuation fees have not been paid by respondents 7 – 9.

5.In case the plaintiff's pay the entire fee which is inclusive of the share of expenses to be borne by the other respondents, including respondents 7-9, the respective shares of the expenses to be borne by the parties will be reimbursed to the plaintiff by appropriating the dues of those respondents from their respective share of the sale proceeds. This is applicable for all the expenses that might involve in the process of sale by appointing Commissioner.
