The learned counsel appearing on behalf of Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited seeks a short accommodation on the ground that settlement talks are going on.

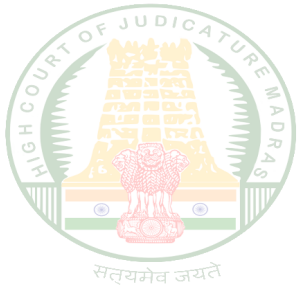

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, however, would reply that though settlement talks are initiated, no settlement has been arrived at between the parties. Hence, she submits that she is ready to argue the matter on merits.

3. In view of the statements made by the learned counsel on either side, let the settlement talks continue and if any amicable settlement is arrived between the parties, the same shall be reported before this Court. If no consensus is arrived, the matter shall be taken up for arguments in the next date of hearing.

4. Call the matter on 19.08.2026.
