Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that in spite of best efforts of the applicant/decreed holder, the whereabouts of the respondent/judgment debtor is not known. Even on the earlier occasion, paper publication was ordered in A.No.5824 of 2023 and the paper publication was effected and affidavit of service was filed. Since there was no representation, this Court allowed the application by order dated 01.10.2024. Thereafter, the decreed holder is prosecuting the present application for arrest and detention of the judgment debtor in civil prison for disobeying the order dated 01.10.2024.

2. The notice that was sent to the judgment debtor was returned as “door locked” and in spite of best efforts of the decreed holder, the whereabouts of the judgment debtor is not known. Since the final orders in the application will result in the arrest and detention of the judgment debtor, this Court is inclined to once again direct the learned counsel for the decreed holder to effect paper publication and accordingly, the decreed holder is directed to effect paper publication in Malai Murasu daily, Chennai edition, on or before 24.10.2025 and the notice shall be returnable by 07.11.2025.

3. Post on 07.11.2025.
