2. It is the contention of the learned counsel for the appellant that insofar as the quantum is concerned, the income tax aspect has not been taken into consideration by the Tribunal and that at least 15 to 20% deduction ought to have been made by the Tribunal. In this context, the appellant insurance company is ready and willing to settle the entire award made after deducting the income tax component alone.

3. With regard to the aforesaid arrangement, whether it is agreeable to the respondents, the learned counsel for the respondents seeks time to get instructions and report before this Court. Post the matter on 12.08.2025.
