This Civil Revision Petition is filed challenging the order passed by the Co-operative Tribunal (the learned Principal District Judge, Salem) reversing the surcharge order passed by the petitioner herein as against the respondents.

2. The charge against respondents was the 1st respondent and 15th respondent enhanced the salaries of respondents 2 to 14 without obtaining prior permission of the Registrar of the Co-operative Societies. The necessity to get prior sanction from the Registrar of Cooperative Societies is something relating to indoor management of Society and the 1st and 15th respondents who were in charge of the affairs of the society were proceeded against by initiating surcharge proceedings under Section 87 of the Tamilnadu Co-operative Societies Act. In the said proceedings, the employees who were beneficiaries of the enhanced salaries were also impleaded as parties respondents. The failure to get sanction from the
