ORDER

Challenging the reversal findings, the second defendant has preferred this appeal.

2. The learned counsel for the appellant/2nd defendant submits that the First Appellate Court failed to properly appreciate the facts and circumstances of the case, whereas the Trial Court had rightly appreciated the same and dismissed the suit. It is further submitted that the plaintiff/first respondent failed to produce any documentary evidence to establish that she is residing in the property, however, the relief was erroneously granted in her favour.

3. This Court admits the second appeal on the following substantial questions of law:

i) Whether the Hon'ble First Appellate Court is right in accepting the School records as relevant evidence to prove the parentage of the child without proving the marriage between the parents, when it is disputed?

ii) Whether the Hon'ble First Appellate Court is wrong in not ordering for scientific evidence such as DNA test to prove the parentage of the plaintiff and whether it went wrong in relying on the School records?

4. Issue notice to the respondents, returnable by 11.03.2026.

5. Till then, the passing of final decree alone is ordered to be stayed.

6. Post the second appeal on 11.03.2026.
