THE HON'BLE CHIEF JUSTICE
and
J.SATHYA NARAYANA PRASAD, J.

(Order of the Court was made by the Hon'ble Chief Justice)

The dispute is about the payment of solatium and interest. The contention of the present appellant is that, in a compromise the amount of compensation was fixed and the respondent had assured that upon receipt of the compensation fixed, no further claim would be made at any point of time and on any account.

2. The learned Single Judge has allowed the writ petition and directed the appellant to pay 100% solatium amount. It is submitted that the acquisition was in the year 2007, when the old Act was in force. During that period, the solatium was 30%.

3. The issues that have to be decided are :

- i. Whether the present respondent / original petitioner is entitled for the amount of solatium and interest?

ii. If yes, the quantum of the said solatium and interest.

4. The appellant shall deposit 30% of the amount of solatium and interest without prejudice to the rights and contentions of either parties. The said deposit shall be made on or before 15.07.2024.

Place the matter on 22.07.2024.
