A.S.Nos.184 and 185 of 2017

R.KALAIMATHI, J.

The counsel for the appellant is ready to advance his arguments.

2. The learned counsel for the second respondent submits that settlement talks are presently going on between the brothers and their mother and, therefore, seeks some time to explore the possibility of an amicable settlement.

3. Considering the submissions made, list the matter after two weeks under the caption 'for reporting settlement' and if not 'for arguments'.
