The learned counsel for the petitioners has filed an application in the month of December, 2025. However, the learned counsel for the respondents submits that the matter has already been settled between the parties. The learned counsel for the petitioners is not aware of the same and therefore, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks time.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned counsel for the respondents are directed to enable the appearance of the parties before this Court to ascertain the settlement of the case between the parties and withdrawal of this application.

3. Registry is directed to list the matter on 28.04.2026 under the caption “for appearance of the parties in person” and print the name of the petitioners.
