The petitioner has challenged the impugned order in original, on the ground of violation of principles of natural justice. The petitioner claims that they did not receive any show cause notice and that they were not provided any opportunity of hearing by the respondent prior to passing of the impugned order in original. The petitioner claims that all the notices that were sent by the respondents were sent to the old address of the petitioner.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner has also produced the following documents to substantiate his contention that the present address of the petitioner is different from the one to which the respondent had sent the notices prior to passing of the impugned order.

- (a). Updated IEC code
- (b). GST certificate
- (c). BRC issued by the DGFT

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner is also pressing for an order of interim stay of the operation of the impugned order in Original No.113920 of 2025 dated 14.07.2025 on the ground that, alert messages have been issued, which has prevented the petitioner from making his regular exports.

4. Mr. Sai Srujan Tayi, learned Senior Standing Counsel, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent and he seeks time to file counter.

5. It is made clear that, if no counter is filed on the next hearing date, this Court shall consider granting of interim stay of the impugned order in favour of the petitioner.

6. Post the matter for counter and disposal on 22.08.2025, immediately after admission.
