Administrator and Mr.C.K.Appaji, learned counsel accepts notice on behalf of respondents 5 and 6.

2.Mr.S.R.Rajagopal, learned Senior Counsel representing Mr.N.V.N.Margandeyan, learned counsel for the applicant submits that respondents 3, 5 and 6 are interfering with the affairs of the management of the first respondent. Therefore, he seeks for an order of interim injunction.

3.Since there is some urgency raised by the applicant stating that respondents 3, 5 and 6 are interfering with the affairs of the management of the first respondent and the learned Senior Counsel sought for an order of interim injunction and no representation for the 3 and 4 respondents and counter also not filed, this Court is inclined to grant an order of status quo.

4.Post the matters on 22.10.2025 for filing counter. In the meantime, there shall be an order of status quo in O.A. No.996 of 2025.
