A.No.4875 of 2024
in O.P.No.627 of 2024

Dr.G.JAYACHANDRAN, J.

As directed, the respondent mother has brought the child, A. Karunya. The petitioner was also present. Before passing a final order on the application for visitation and custody, this Court, after interacting with the parents, is of the view that there is a strong suspicion and apprehension in the mind of the mother that granting temporary custody to the petitioner may harm the child. However, to dispel this apprehension, it is necessary to break the ice. Therefore, the petitioner shall interact with his daughter on odd Sundays (1st and 3rd week) through video conferencing between 9:00 a.m and 11:00 a.m. The petitioner is also permitted to make a physical visit to meet his daughter on even Sundays (2nd and 4th week) between 10:00 a.m and 12:30 p.m., in a public place, such as a park or mall.

2. The respondent mother shall decide about the place of meeting and respondent mother shall bring the child to the place during the time fixed for meeting.

3. Post this matter on 20.12.2024.
