Since the learned counsel for the respondent had filed an affidavit, explaining his conduct and also has tendered unconditional apology to this Court, this Court is of the view that no further proceedings shall be initiated against the learned counsel for the respondent.

2. Considering the fact that there are allegations as regards the visitation rights given to the father, the order dated 20.11.2024 is modified in the following manner:

(i) The mother shall produce the child before the Child Care Centre attached to the Family Court on the first and third Saturdays of every month at 10:00 a.m and leave the child to the custody of the father in the Child Care Centre. The petitioner is also permitted to be with the child till 12.00 noon.

(ii) The Video Conferencing that has been permitted shall be continued. Such Video Conferencing shall commence from 09.03.2025 on alternate Sundays after each of the visit at the Child Care Centre.

(iii) The Psychiatrist attached to the Centre shall assess the relationship between the child and the father and submit a report of her views of the visits on 08.03.2025 and 22.03.2025, before this Court on 28.03.2025.
