to shift from U.K. to India to conduct the case, the applicant could neither appear before this Court nor engage a counsel to conduct the case on 29.03.2023. Hence, there is a delay of 193 days in filing the application to set aside exparte order passed against her. Therefore, the present application.

3.Other side expressed no objection in allowing this application.

4.Considering the above said reasons stated in the accompanying affidavit, considering the facts and circumstances and also considering the number of days delay and also in order to give a fair chance to the applicant/ 1st respondent to contest the case, it is appropriate to allow this application.

5.This Application stands allowed accordingly.

6.Registry is directed to number the application filed for setting aside the exparte order passed by this Court, if the papers are otherwise in order.
