ORDER

This application is filed by the applicant to grant interim visitation rights to the applicant to visit his minor son, namely Sai Krishav between 9 am to 6 pm on Sunday every week, access to his minor son on festival days and on child's birthday, i.e. 4th of November and spend half of school term vacations.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant is the father of the minor child and the respondent is the mother. Due to misunderstanding between them, both of them were separated and now the child is under the care and custody of the respondent. The respondent refused to show the child and whenever the applicant approached the respondent to see the child, she refused. On account of the birthday of the child on 04.11.2025, the applicant may be permitted to see the child in any one public place.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent submitted that already, there are some disputes between the applicant and respondent and they have been separated and the applicant assaulted the respondent in the presence of the child and therefore, the child is not willing to see the applicant-father.

4. Considering the above said submissions made on both sides' counsel and the father is also unable to see the child for a long time and on account of the birth day of the child, the applicant also wanted to see the child for some time. Therefore, it is appropriate to permit the applicant to see the child on 04.11.2025 in any public place for some time. Both sides' counsel agree to have the custody of the child on account of the birth day of the child at 04.11.2025 at 5 p.m at Vinayagar Temple, near the house of the respondent Aayanambakkam and the respondent also agreed to send the location through Whatsapp. In view of the same, this Court is inclined to pass the following interim order:

The respondent is directed to produce the child on 04.11.2025 at 5 p.m. at Vinayagar Temple near the house of the respondent at Aayanambakkm. The applicant-father is permitted to visit the child from 5 pm. to 6 p.m. on 04.11.2025.

Post the matter on 14.11.2025 for filing counter affidavit in this application.
