ORDER

Challenging the concurrent findings of the Courts below, the defendant has preferred this appeal.

2. According to the learned counsel for the respondent, no substantial question of law is involved in this appeal. The plaintiff has proved his right and title over the suit property, whereas the defendant has failed to establish his right and title. He further submitted that, during the pendency of the proceedings, the defendant created false documents in favour of his wife, which are not binding upon the plaintiff. Hence, the learned counsel prayed for dismissal of the appeal as devoid of merits.

3. For reply on behalf of the appellant, and considering the fact that some of the respondents are more than 80 years of age, post the case on 10.09.2026.
