ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by C.V.Karthikeyan J.)

Mr.N.Nissar Ahmed, learned Senior Counsel for the 2nd appellant raised a preliminary objection regarding jurisdiction of the Waqf Tribunal, which had adjudicated on the plaint presented before it. It is contended that the Waqf is a private Waqf and therefore, the Tribunal would not have any jurisdiction to adjudicate the issues.

2.Mr.M.L.Ganesh, learned counsel for the 1st respondent, however, contended that it is not a private Waqf and contended that originally a suit was instituted in the Original Side of the Madras High Court and the said suit was returned stating that the Civil Court has no jurisdiction and that the papers should be presented before the Waqf Tribunal.

3.Let records in that regard be produced before this Court or atleast, references could be given to this Court and this Court could call for the records from the Original Side.

4.The appellants may serve relevant papers of the appeal to the learned Standing Counsel for the Tamil Nadu Waqf Board who may also be heard on this issue.

5.List the matter once again on 13.07.2026.
