or any mark which is deceptively similar and or identical to the Applicant's/Plaintiff's registered trademark "BOUNCE" in any of the websites, domain names, social media platforms, email address, mobile application and other intermediaries in any language in any manner whatsoever pending disposal of the suit.

5.Despite Cease and Desist Notice issued by the applicant/plaintiff on 04.08.2025, which has been received by the respondent/defendant herein, the respondent has chosen not to reply.

6. It is to be noted that the plaintiff is having a registered trademark 'BOUNCE' bearing Application Nos.1278997 under class 42, 2371476 under class 44, 2371477 under class 26, 2371478 under class 11, 2371479 under class 21, 2375804 under class 41, 2375805 under class 44, 3381492 under class 44, 3381493 under class 44 and 5730239 under class 41 and the defendant is using the name "B BOUNCE SALON, B BOUNCE, B BOUNCE UNISEX SALON", which is deceptively similar to that of the plaintiff and a cease and desist notice has also been issued by the plaintiff. Despite the issuance of such notice, the defendant had not chosen to reply to the same. Taking into consideration that the plaintiff holds registered trademarks, the plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for grant of ad-interim injunction. Apart from this, the plaintiff has obtained several interim orders as against various persons, which has been annexed in Volume 3 of the typed set of papers. Considering the trademark, which has been registered in favour of the plaintiff and in the absence of any reply given by the respondent/defendant to the cease and desist notices, this court is of the considered view that the applicant/plaintiff is entitled to an order of ad-interim injunction.

7. In view of the same, there shall be an order of ad interim injunction as prayed for in all the Applications till 03.11.2025. Notice to the respondents returnable by 03.11.2025. The plaintiff/applicant shall comply with Order XXXIX Rule 3 of the CPC.
