Challenging the order of return in application filed under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 of CPC r/w 7 of the Family Court Act, 1984, the present revision has been filed.

2. The respondent as the husband filed a petition for Divorce under Section 13(1)(i-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act in F.C.O.P.No.298 of 2023 and the same came to be allowed exparte. Thereafter, the petitioner filed an application to set aside the exparte decree along with a condone delay application. Pending the same, the petitioner/wife apprehending that the respondent may contract a 2nd marriage had filed an application for grant of interim injunction to restrain the husband from contracting a 2nd marriage, pending disposal of the application to set aside the exparte decree.

3. Mr.S.Vijayakumar, learned counsel entered appearance for the respondent, today, contended that the respondent will await the decision in the condone delay application and till such time, he has no intention to contract a 2nd marriage.

4. Recording the said submission made by the learned counsel appearing for the respondent, no further orders are necessary in this revision. The order passed in the application for interim injunction is also thus unnecessary, of being challenged.

5. This Civil Revision Petition is disposed of by recording the submission of the learned counsel for the respondent and by directing the Family Court, Chengalpet to dispose of I.A.No.5 of 2025, on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
