WEB COPY 2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that at the time of the alleged accident, the claimant had been instructed not to operate the machine. However, disregarding the said instructions, the claimant operated the machine and thereby invited the accident. Hence, it is contended that the claimant is not entitled to any compensation under the Employee's Compensation Act.

3. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant a stay of execution of the order dated 02.04.2025 passed in E.C.No.1 of 2023 on the file of the Joint Commissioner for Labour -1 (Employee's Compensation), Teynampet, Chennai, till then.

3. List this case on 24.02.2026.
