COMMON ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by S.M.Subramaniam J.)

Writ on hand has been instituted challenging final notice issued under Section 6 of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act').

2. Final notice issued under Section 6 is appealable under Section 10 of the Act before District Collector. Thus, all the grounds raised by the petitioners or non-consideration of grounds by original authority may be raised as grounds before appellate authority under Section 10 of the Act. Even Section 10B of the Act contemplates grant of interim order and an interlocutory application may also be moved before the appellate authority for passing appropriate orders, if required.

3. In view of statutory appeal contemplated under the Act, High Court need not entertain a writ proceeding.

4. Accordingly, the writ petitions are dismissed, granting liberty to petitioners to prefer an appeal. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions, if any, are closed.
