2. The learned counsel appearing for the respondent management seeks time to file a counter.

3. When the application was served on 24.10.2025 itself, further time cannot be granted as far as the payment of last drawn wages is concerned. On a perusal of the affidavit, the petitioner has stated that he was drawing last drawn wages of Rs.12,500/- per month. In paragraph 15, it is categorically stated that he is not gainfully employed anywhere and is even willing to join duty if reinstated. The company has not come forward to reinstate the petitioner. It can be seen from the award that it is one of reinstatement with back wages.

4. In view thereof, let the last drawn wages be paid from the date of filing of the writ petition. The writ petition was filed on 28.08.2024. Let the
