2. The learned Senior Counsel would point out to the fact that this Court in W.P. No.20280 of 2025, while admitting the Writ Petition has granted an interim stay, insofar as taking over management of Waqf. However, subsequently, when the Writ Petition was disposed of, it appears that this Court has recorded as if while granting an interim stay, a direction has been issued to the first respondent to continue the direct management for a period of three months. Taking advantage of this observation in the order dated 09.09.2025, the respondents have now issued fresh impugned proceedings dated 23.10.2025.

3. According to the learned Senior Counse, as per the directions of this Court, the Commissioner has initiated the process and the petitioner has cooperated with the Commissioner. However, on going through the order granting interim stay in the Writ Petition No.20280 of 2025, I do not find any specific direction issued to the first respondent. Be that as it may, the respondent has filed their counter. In the meantime, the parties shall maintain status quo. The order of status quo shall not prevent the Advocate Commissioner to proceed with the directions issued in W.P. No.20280 of 2025.
