4. In full and final settlement of all claims in I.A.No.4 of 2024, the respondent has agreed to pay the petitioner / wife a sum of Rs.7,50,000/- and the petitioner has given up her rights to claim maintenance, permanent, interim or otherwise. The parties have also agreed to file a mutual consent petition invoking Section 13(B) of the Act. It has been agreed that, on the date of filing of the concerned petition, Rs.3,50,000/- would be paid in part satisfaction of the total amount of Rs.7,50,000/- and on the date, when the parties appear for giving evidence for final disposal of the mutual consent divorce petition, the remaining sum of Rs.4,00,000/- shall be paid. The petitioner has made it clear that she has no further claims against the respondent / husband. The said settlement agreement is signed by both the petitioner and the respondent who are also physically present before me today. It is also countersigned by the respective counsels. It is dated 20.08.2026.

5. The learned counsel for the respondent would state that though it has not been recorded in the settlement agreement, the parties have undertaken to file the 13(B) petition within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. Accordingly, this civil revision petition is disposed of in terms of the settlement agreement which shall form part and parcel of the order.
