The petitioner would submit that she was allotted a small room measuring 10"x8" in the ground floor of said property, however she was denied of basic needs. The medical expenses and monetary needs of the petitioner were taken care of by her daughters. The petitioner would submit that the portion where she was permitted to stay by her son, the fourth respondent, is not convenient and suitable to reside. That apart, she was ill-treated by her son and her daughter-in-law.
