ORDER

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted photographs to show that the building is in a very good condition with iron girders and solid wooden terraces and is made up of good quality Madras terrace.

2. On perusal thereof, the building seems to be in good condition, better than the ones which are now made these days. The learned counsel requested to get instructions with regard to the same. It is also submitted on behalf of the petitioner that if a total time of one year is granted, she will permanently vacate the premises as the ongoing courses will be complete and she will hand over possession herself in the month of February 2027.

3.The learned counsel is directed to get instructions with regard to the same. Call the matter on 29.01.2026.
