

WEB COPY C.V.KARTHIKEYAN,J.

The father of the 1st and 2nd respondents was a lessee under Gopalsamy Pillai and consequently, having some sentimental value over the possession of the property had purchased the property from the legal representatives of Gopalsamy Pillai. The suit is only for injunction.

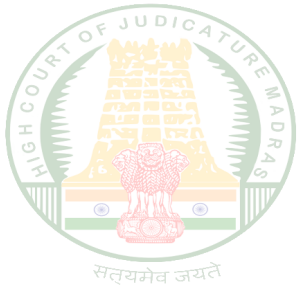

2.Quite independently, the agnates of Kodhandapani had filed a suit for partition including the present suit property. In that suit, the appellant herein has been shown as 1st defendant. The appellant claimed that an ex-parte decree as against him was passed in that suit and questioning that, a Civil Revision Petition has been filed, which is now pending before the Registry for numbering. Questioning the preliminary decree granted in the said suit, the respondents had filed a First Appeal and thereafter, the plaintiff therein had filed a Second Appeal in S.A.No.575 of 2020.

3.The Registry may also list S.A.No.575 of 2020 along with the present Second Appeal on 19.12.2022.

07.12.2022

smv

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN,J.

WEB COPY

smv

S.A.No.926 of 2022

07.12.2022