The petitioner asserts that his family has a small private temple named Arulmigu. Angala Parameswari and Periyamayagi Amman temple along with a private samadhi. A trust was formed under trust deed dated 13.11.2025 and the said trust deed was presented for registration. On the basis that the said trust deed has not been registered till date, the petitioner has approached this Court.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been conducting pooja and managing the temple and samadhi for several years. He draws reference to multiple orders issued by this Court in relation thereto. Therefore, he submits that there is no legal impediment to the registration of the trust deed.

3. Ms.Akila Rajendran, learned Government Advocate, accepts notice for the first respondent. She submits that no refusal check slip has been issued till date and that the petitioner's request for registration would be considered and disposed of after issuing notice and providing a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner and the second respondent.

4. In view of the above submissions of learned Government Advocate, this writ petition is being disposed of without notice to the second respondent.

5. The writ petition is disposed of on the following terms:

(i) The petitioner shall re-present the trust deed for registration within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

(ii) Upon receipt thereof, the first respondent is directed to issue notice to the petitioner and the second respondent and after considering the objections, if any of the second respondent, either register the trust deed or issue a speaking order of refusal. These actions shall be done within thirty days from the date of re-presentation.

There will be no order as to costs.
