

T.O.S.No.32 of 2018

DR.R.N.MANJULA, J.

As per the earlier order dated 28.07.2025, service of notice on Sri.Maha Thirupurasundari Niketanam is not completed. However, notice has been served on the other beneficiary namely Sri.Srinivasa Niketanam, in compliance of the order dated 28.07.2025. In the meanwhile, Sri.Srinivasa Niketanam, himself has filed an application to implead him as party to the proceedings and that has been allowed.

2. Even on an earlier occasion, the learned counsel appeared for the newly impleaded party has stated that he is bereft of any particulars about the plaint and there is a specific direction to furnish him a copy of the plaint. In view of his impleadment, let the plaintiff furnish a copy of the plaint and other documents to the newly impleaded party along with an application to amend the suit, forthwith.

3. The plaintiff, despite being an executor and being aware of another beneficiary, has not impleaded Sri Maha Thirupurasundari Niketanam. It is learnt from the submission of the learned counsel for the plaintiff that notice on Sri.Maha Thirupurasundari Niketanam, cannot be served successfully. In case, the other beneficiary namely Sri.Srinivasa Niketanam, have acquaintance with Sri.Maha Thirupurasundari Niketanam, he can at least inform the other party to file an application to implead himself as a party to the proceedings in order to progress the matter further.

4. To work out the possibilities of informing the other beneficiary to get himself impleaded as party to the proceedings, the matter is ordered to be listed on 23.01.2026.
