ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by N. ANAND VENKATESH,J.)

The petitioner is the detenu, by name Gokulnath, S.o Thamizharasan, aged 20 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in Detention Order C.O.C.No.26 of 2025 (TPDA No.380) dated 08.10.2025 holding him to be a "Drug Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(e) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there was one adverse case involving an intermediate quantity of 100 gms of ganja, for which, FIR was registered in Crime No.180 of 2025. The ground case involved 12 kgs of ganja, which is also an intermediate quantify for which, FIR was registered in Crime No. 266 of 2025. The detenu was arrested on 11.09.2025, whereas, the detention order was passed only on 08.10.2025.

4. It was contended that in both cases, intermediate quantity was involved, whereas the Detaining Authority in a casual manner has passed the detention order in a case where such an order is not warranted.

5. We are of the view that both in the adverse case as well as in the ground case, the quantity that is alleged to have been seized is only an intermediate quantity. Hence, it is not a serious offence under the NDPS Act, since it does not involve any commercial quantity, warranting passing of a detention order and the detenu could have been dealt with under regular penal law that is already available and there was no need for resorting to detention order under Act 14 of 1982.

WEB COPY 6. For this purpose, we rely on the judgment in Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244).

7. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in Detention Order C.O.C.No.26 of 2025 (TPDA No.380) dated 08.10.2025 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Gokulnath, S.o Thamizharasan, aged 20 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
