CMA(MD) Nos.153 and 158 of
N.ANAND VENKATESH, J.
and
P.DHANABAL, J.

We have heard the learned counsel on either side.

2. The appellant and the respondent are not living together for nearly 12 ½ years. There is a boy child out of the marriage, who is aged about 14 years. The appellant is having the custody of the boy. There are parallel proceedings initiated under the Domestic Violence Act and maintenance amount has been fixed.

3. Considering the facts of the case, this Court suggested that a permanent alimony can be fixed, which will be payable by the respondent to the appellant. Insofar as the interest of the child is concerned, the parties can agree for visitation rights.

4. The learned counsel on either side seek some time to take instructions in this regard. Post this case under the caption, 'for orders' on 02.04.2026.
