Prayer in CMA(MD) Nos.287 and 288 of 2026 : These Civil Miscellaneous Appeals filed under Order 43 Rule 1 (r) of C.P.C., against the fair and executable order, dated 21.01.2026 passed in I.A.No.3 of 2025 and I.A.No.4 of 2025 respectively in O.S.No.310 of 2025 on the file of the I Additional District Court, Tirunelveli.

Prayer in CMP(MD) Nos.2597 and 2598 of 2026 : These Civil Miscellaneous Petitions filed under Order 41 Rule 5 (i) of C.P.C., to suspend the order, dated 21.01.2026 passed in I.A.No.3 of 2025 and I.A.No.4 of 2025 respectively in O.S.No.310 of 2025 on the file of the I Additional District Court, Tirunelveli.

COMMON ORDER

When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel appearing for the first respondent would submit that only the first respondent is present before this Court. It is further submitted that though, on 06.04.2026, at the time of hearing, the learned counsel had represented that they were ready to produce all the parties who had entered into a compromise, the other parties are not present today.

2. The learned counsel for the first respondent would further submit that, in view of the opposition from the other side for withdrawal of the suit on the basis of the alleged settlement, the first respondent is now inclined to not press the suit before the trial Court.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the appellant would submit that, on account of the subsisting order of injunction, the appellant is prevented from discharging his functions as District Governor, which is causing serious hardship not only to the appellant but also to the concerned Club.

4. In the light of the submission made by the first respondent/plaintiff that the suit is proposed to be not pressed, this Court is of the considered view that the continuance of the order of temporary injunction is not warranted at this stage.

5. Accordingly, the orders of temporary injunction granted by the trial Court in I.A.Nos.3 and 4 of 2025 in O.S.No.310 of 2025, dated 21.01.2026, are hereby suspended till 21.04.2026.

6. Post the matter on 21.04.2026.
