3.The learned counsel appearing for the first respondent filed a counter stating that the first respondent provides financial assistance to the third respondent, who in turn disburses loans to its members. In the present case, the third respondent is due a sum of Rs.4,60,790/- as of April 2024. In such circumstances, the sale deed deposited by the petitioner with the third respondent cannot be returned unless the third respondent discharges the loan amount due to the first respondent.

4.The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the second respondent submitted that on 20.04.2023 a proposal had been sent to the first respondent to release the original sale deed in favour of the petitioner, since the petitioner has discharged the loan amount.

5.In similar circumstances, a Coordinate Bench of this Court in W.P.(MD) No.5791 of 2024 dated 27.06.2024 directed the first respondent therein to release the sale deed to the petitioner while preserving the liberty of the first respondent to proceed against the society, which is the third respondent herein, in the manner known to law.
