ORDER

The writ petition is filed challenging the impugned order dated 25.04.2024 passed under Section 73 of the CGST Act, 2017.

2. The ground, on which the order passed, is that the returns were not filed in time. It is pleaded on behalf of the petitioner that by the introduction of Section 16(5) of the Act, up to the year 2021, even if the returns are filed belatedly and if they are filed on or before 30.11.2021, the same are taken on file within time and in view thereof, most of the liability that is assessed in the order itself will not be there if an opportunity is given to the petitioner to explain the said circumstances.

3. I have also heard the learned Senior Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent.

4. The learned Senior Standing Counsel for the respondent is not in a position to dispute the legal position of the amendment being carried to Section 16 of the Act and the time being extended. In view thereof, this writ petition is allowed on the following terms:

- (a) The impugned order dated 25.04.2024 shall stand set aside and the matter is remanded back to the file of the respondent for fresh disposal;
- (b) The petitioner shall appear before the respondent without fail and submit such reply and place on record the documents in support of its claim and it will be open for the petitioner to take such stand, both legal and factual, before the respondent and it is for the respondent to consider the issue in accordance with law and pass orders afresh; and
- (c) No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
