MUMMINENI SUDHEER KUMAR.,J

The sixth respondent is the proposed respondent sought to be impleaded on the ground that there were certain amounts lying to the credit of the deceased daughter of the petitioner maintained with the State Bank of India.

2. The main writ petition is filed in respect of the certain benefits due and payable to the deceased daughter of the petitioner. Hence, the cause of action in respect of the amounts lying in the bank account maintained by the deceased daughter of the petitioner in State Bank of India is totally independent and the same cannot be adjudicated along with the main writ petition. Hence, the impleading petition cannot be entertained and the same is dismissed, leaving it open to the petitioner to pursue the remedy to be obtained by her in accordance with law.
