2. We have perused the materials on record.

3. As the proceedings have been initiated under the SARFAESI Act, the proper way for the petitioner to challenge the same is to approach the Debts Recovery Tribunal concerned. Though it is stated that since one of the schedule properties is agricultural property as such it does not fall within the ambit of SARFAESI Act, and therefore, the writ petition is maintainable, we are not impressed with the said submission since the said contention can always be raised and decided by the DRT. Thus, it is for the petitioner to approach the DRT concerned and raise such contention and it is for the DRT concerned to decide the same on merits.

4. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
