242/1, measuring an extent of 1.83 acres. Further, the matter was directed to be listed for reporting compliance. Accordingly, the case is listed today under the caption “for reporting compliance”.

2. In pursuance of the orders of this Court directing deletion of the names of the fourth to ninth respondents from the patta in respect of the land in Survey No.242/1, the learned Government Advocate appearing for the first to third respondents would submit that the order has been complied with. However, the learned Government Advocate would submit that the names of the fourth to ninth respondents have been deleted and patta has been issued in the name of the petitioner in respect of the same property. It is also submitted that owing to the software system, the survey number has been automatically shown as Survey No.242/1A, which is a subdivision number and that Survey No.242/1 and Survey No.242/1A refer to one and the same property.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that civil disputes are pending before the Civil Court and the survey number in dispute is Survey No.242/1 and therefore, showing the property as Survey No.242/1A would create a problem.

4. The learned Government Advocate submitted that an official communication would be sent to the Civil Court and to the petitioner stating that Survey No.242/1 and Survey No.242/1A refer to one and the same property of the petitioner.

5. The submissions are recorded. In view of the compliance reported and the undertaking recorded, no further listing for reporting compliance is necessary.
