2.The Court notice sent to the first respondent has been returned with an endorsement 'insufficient address' and the private notice has also been served on the trial Court advocate of the first respondent, namely, K.S.N.Sivamani. Therefore, the notice is deemed to be served on the first respondent and service of notice is held sufficient. Despite service of notice to the second respondent and his name has also been printed in the cause list, when the matter is taken up for hearing today, neither the second respondent nor any counsel representing him appear before this Court. Therefore, this Court thought it fit to appoint a Legal Aid Counsel for the respondents.
