ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by N.SATHISH KUMAR, J.)

This petition has been filed seeking to condone the delay of 826 days in filing the Review Petition against the order passed by this Court in W.P.(MD)No.19047 of 2022, dated 25.07.2023.

2. The reason assigned for condoning the inordinate delay is that the petitioners came to know about the writ order only after the issuance of the eviction notice under Section 78 of the Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959. Therefore, the delay occurred.

3. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, we are of the view that, since the eviction notice has already been issued under Section 78 of the Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959, it is open to the petitioners to challenge the same either by filing a revision under the said Act or by instituting a comprehensive suit before the civil court. It is also stated that a civil suit in O.S. No. 6 of 2026 has been filed before the Principal District Judge, Theni.

4. In view of the above, no purpose would be served in hearing the Review Petition. Therefore, the condone delay petition is dismissed. Consequently, the Review Petition in Rev.Aplw(MD)SR.No.103943 of 2025 is also dismissed at the SR stage itself. There shall be no order as to costs.

5. However, the apprehension of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the order passed in the Writ Petition may influence the civil Court. Hence, the learned Principal District Judge, Theni, shall consider the civil suit and pass orders on its own merits, based on the evidence adduced, without being influenced by any of the observations made in the Writ Petition.
