ORDER

The petitioner is before this Court seeking issuance of a Writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to consider and dispose of the vigilance complaint submitted by the petitioner dated 31.05.2025.

2. In the said complaint, the petitioner requested the respondents to expedite the enquiry, take appropriate action against the officials of the respondent Bank, and cancel the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).

3. The petitioner contends that the Branch Manager of the respondent Bank, in collusion with the proprietor of CMS Agro Equipments, cheated the petitioner by misappropriating the loan amount extended to him. The petitioner further states that he had filed a complaint before the Consumer Redressal Forum, which was allowed, and the respondent Bank was directed to pay a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- as compensation and also to cancel the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). Aggrieved by the said order, the respondent Bank has filed an appeal, which is presently pending consideration.

4. Mr. M. Senthilkumar, learned counsel appearing for the respondents, submitted that the complaint filed by the petitioner seeking action against the bank officials has already been considered and a communication in this regard has been issued to the petitioner on 26.02.2026.

5. The said submission is placed on record. In light of the above, nothing further survives for adjudication in this writ petition. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is closed. No costs.
