

according to proportionment, is ordered to be released in their favour along with up-to-date interest, if no amount has already been released in their favour. The amount shall be remitted in their bank accounts, details whereof have been given in para 3 of application and photocopies of front pages of their pass books have also been placed on record along with application.

It is made clear that in case, at the time of final decision of appeal, it is found that excess amount has been released in favour of aforesaid applicants/respondents, then they shall be liable to repay the same along with up-to-date interest.

Application stands disposed of.

CMP No. 8475 of 2020

This application has been filed for release of compensation amount awarded in favour of respondents No.1(d)(i), 1(d)(ii) and 1(d)(iii) namely Naresh Kumar, Dinesh Kumar and Monika Devi respectively. Application is duly supported by affidavit of each and every applicant.

In view of order passed today in CMP No. 8474 of 2020, 50% amount of awarded compensation, falling in share of deceased respondent No.1(d), as per his entitlement according to proportionment, is ordered to be released in favour of respondents No.1(d)(i), 1(d)(ii) and 1(d)(iii) in equal shares along with up-to-date interest, if not already released in their favour or in favour of respondent No.1(d), by remitting the same in their bank accounts, mentioned in para 3 of application. Photocopies of front pages of their pass books have also been placed on record along with application.

2025:HHC:40319

It is made clear that in case, at the time of final decision of appeal, it is found that excess amount has been released in favour of aforesaid applicants/respondents, then they shall be liable to repay the same along with up-to-date interest.

Application stands disposed of.

September 04,2020
(ms)

(Vivek Singh Thakur)
Judge