

27.10.2020 Present: Mr. Chandan Goel, Advocate for the appellant/non applicant.

Mr. S.M. Snehi, Advocate for the applicants/
respondents No. 1 to 3.

(Through Video Conference)

CMP No. 10981 of 2020

By way of this application, the applicants/respondents No. 2 and 3 have prayed that as they have attained the age of majority, in these circumstances, their next friend, who was pursuing the case on their behalf, in her capacity as mother and natural guardian, i.e. respondent No. 1, be discharged and applicants/respondents No. 2 and 3 be permitted to pursue the case in their own capacity. In support of the prayer made in the application, copies of matriculation certificate of the applicants have been appended with the application as Annexures A-1 and A-2, a perusal of which shows that the applicants have attained
the age of majority.

No reply to the application is intended to be filed by the non-applicant/appellant.

After hearing learned Counsel for the parties, the application is allowed and mother of the applicants/respondents
No. 2 and 3 is discharged as their guardian and respondents No. 2 and 3 are permitted to pursue their case in their own capacity.
The application stands disposed of.

This application is for release of amount of compensation in favour of the applicants/respondents No. 1 to 3.

Having heard learned Counsel for the applicants, this application is allowed to the extent that 50% of the amount, falling to the share of the applicants, deposited before this Court, is directed to be released in their favour. The amount be remitted directly into the bank account(s) as per particulars mentioned in the application. Release of amount shall abide by final adjudication of the appeal. In the event of appeal being allowed, the claimants will have to refund the amount so released with interest @ 9 % per annum. Application stands disposed of.
